Subject Matter of the Construction Contract

§ 101.101. The purpose of this section is to provide a clear and concise definition of the term "listing rules" as used in this Act. The listing rules are the rules that govern the listing of securities on a stock exchange. These rules are designed to protect investors and to ensure the integrity of the capital markets. The listing rules are established by the stock exchange and are subject to the oversight of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The listing rules are a critical component of the securities market and are essential for the functioning of the capital markets. The listing rules are designed to ensure that the securities listed on the exchange are of high quality and are subject to rigorous oversight. The listing rules are a key element of the securities market and are essential for the protection of investors and the integrity of the capital markets.
